HW#9 毎週の表現(8)

時間目 名前

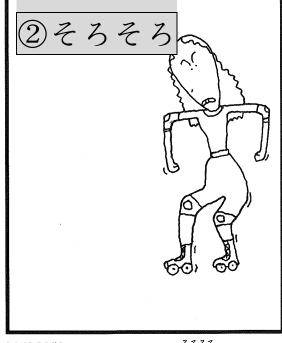

(ろうさま ①ご苦労様

"Gokurousama" literally translates as "Honorable Hard Worker", and is used much the same way as otsukaresama. However, it is used far less frequently than otsukaresma. While otsukaresama can be used many times a day between fellow workers, gokurousama is generally used more for thanking someone of lower status for doing a task for you.

You can also elevate the formality by adding a "deshita" on to the end of this phrase.

A teacher might say to a class this week:

いません、今日で一学期が終わりました。 くるうさま ご苦労様でした!

SOTO SOTO [A]

」だいじょうぶです。では、また明日」

① Describes doing something slowly and quietly. ② Describes a situation or time that is approaching. On the brink of.

そろそろ

①ゆっくり、静かにおこなうさま。②ある状態や時期になりかかった様子。

③三本の矢

Bさん「

"Three Arrows" comes from an old samurai story that explains that three arrows held together are difficult to break in half. However, one arrow, representing someone going on the own (not cooperating), is quite easy to break.

	8時50分ですよ。もう
2)	ずが来っていて(roads are frozen)、きけんなので、横断歩道(crosswalk)を 歩きました。
3)	練習の最後にコーチは、生徒に『』と言った。
4)	一人じゃなくて、三人いるといい考えがあるね。『』だよ。
5)	A さん「仕事がおわりました。これでだいじょうぶですか。」